

NIST 800-171 SMALL BUSINESS COMPLIANCE GUIDE

EDUCATE

WHAT IS NIST 800-171?

NIST 800-171 is a list of 110 requirements regarding cybersecurity. It provides conditions for protecting the confidentiality of CONTROLLED UNCLASSIFIED INFORMATION (CUI).

CUI INCLUDES:

- research and engineering data
- standards
- technical reports
- data sets
- CDRLs
- engineering drawings and lists
- process sheets
- technical orders
- studies and analyses and related information
- specifications
- manuals
- Catalog-Item identifications
- computer software executable code and source code

WHO NEEDS TO BE COMPLIANT?

Any non-federal organization that processes, stores or transmits sensitive federal information, including:

- Government contractors
- Universities and research institutions
- Consulting companies
- Service providers
- Manufacturing companies (defense agencies)

THE REQUIREMENT 14 FAMILIES FOR NIST SP 800-171: INCLUDING

- CONFIGURATION MANAGEMENT
- AWARENESS TRAINING
- INCIDENT RESPONSE
- RISK ASSESSMENT
- ACCESS CONTROL

DFARS COMPLIANCE MEANS "IMPLEMENTING 3 THINGS"

for more information visit haightbey.com/totem

