

ENGINEERING YOUR REAL SUCCESS WITH ANGELA TREGO

Soft skills training from Dr. Angela Trego for your technical employees will increase their effectiveness as they take on supervisor, first line management, increased responsibilities, or are high potential. Soft skill and emotional intelligence training can also help you retain talent and increase your organization's productivity. These courses are developed by a technical leader for technical individuals to help them learn these critical skills.

How It Can Help:

Do you have technical individuals who have recently been promoted into management frustrated because they don't have the proper skills? Or, are employees complaining that their technical lead, supervisor, or first-line manager isn't helping them be successful? In many technical organizations when someone does great as an individual contributor they are promoted to management, where they may not have the skills they need to be successful. These courses directly address these issues to increase the potential of your employees, your teams, and your organization.

What Can I Expect:

Dr. Trego provide forward-thinking, hands-on training to technical individuals and organizations. This is not a lecture! Case studies, role playing, and group discussions, amongst other techniques will be utilized as appropriate. Dr. Trego is an award-winning teacher who has practical experiences, which provide additional insight and perspective. Complex topics are reduced to key critical items, which can be learned more easily and applied outside of the classroom.
